HISTORY of the Farm

In the beginning, Barb and Dan met. Twice, in fact. The first time was in grade school. Of course, there were no sparks back then. To Barb, Dan was a scrawny, blonde, blue/brown eyed kid (yes, he has one of each), whose passion in life was throwing a tennis ball against a back-board. To Dan, Barb was just a girl in his brother, Ben's, class. With six kids in Dan's family, and five in Barb's family, they were all in each other's classes, and all rode the two-hour bus ride home from school together. During one of those bus rides, Barb even signed Dan's yearbook, "Have a great summer. See you next year!" But they didn't see each other next year. Dan's family moved away.

Twenty years later, they happened to meet again. As much as they tried to resist it, they couldn't help falling in love. He loved camo, she loved camo. She loved shooting guns, he loved shooting guns. He loved San Luis Obispo County, she had just bought 37-acres there. They would go to the empty property often, plant trees, camp under the 250-year old Oak tree, and dream about building a family, and a legacy.

On July 2, 2007, while their dogs romped through the weeds under their Oak, Dan pulled out a vintage ring and asked Barb to marry him.

We want this farm to be our family legacy. We started from 37 empty acres, and poured blood, sweat, and happy tears in to creating a perfect space for families to celebrate their big moments, grow, and come back to visit.

Ready to build your legacy?

Special Features

There aren't many venues out there designed specifically for weddings and receptions, and honestly, we can't think of another one in our county that's quite like ours! With distinct areas for your Ceremony, Cocktails, and Reception, your guests will be blown away by all the unique backdrops. Guests are totally amazed by the stunning garden oasis tucked away in the vineyards and backroads of the Central Coast. Since we only host a limited number of weddings each year, there's a good chance your friends and family haven't experienced Hartley Farms yet—and we'd love to change that for you! What caught your eye?...

- CEREMONY UNDER A 250-YEAR-OLD OAK TREE
- COCKTAILS IN THE VINEYARD
- OPTION TO BOOK THE ENTIRE WEEKEND
- BAR IN A RE-PURPOSED GRAIN BIN
- UNIQUE BOTTLE BAR FOR FOOD SERVICE

"To this day I still cannot believe I had my wedding there. It was so beautiful and Chris and I loved how everything turned out, especially our guests! For so long, our guests have been telling us what a beautiful venue we had. That it's so whimsical & got a tropical vibe off of it and every now and then, they remind us of how amazing the food was!!
