WELCOME TO HARTLEY FARMS

from Barbara (Hartley) Goodrich

Congratulations on your engagement!

Planning your wedding should be exciting—not overwhelming.

Whether you're just beginning your search or already envisioning your perfect day, we've created this guide to answer your questions, show you what's included, and help
you imagine what your wedding could look like here.

Barbara Goodrich

HISTORY of the Farm

1986

In the beginning, Barb and Dan met. Twice, in fact. The first time was in grade school. Of course, there were no sparks back then. To Barb, Dan was a scrawny, blonde, blue/brown eyed kid (yes, he has one of each), whose passion in life was throwing a tennis ball against a back-board. To Dan, Barb was just a girl in his brother, Ben's, class. With six kids in Dan's family, and five in Barb's family, they were all in each other's classes, and all rode the two-hour bus ride home from school together. During one of those bus rides, Barb even signed Dan's yearbook, "Have a great summer. See you next year!" But they didn't see each other next year. Dan's family moved away.

Twenty years later, they happened to meet again.

As much as they tried to resist it, they couldn't help falling in love. He loved camo, she loved camo. She loved shooting guns, he loved shooting guns. He loved San Luis Obispo County, she had just bought 37-acres there. They would go to the empty property often, plant trees, camp under the 250-year old Oak tree, and dream about building a family, and a legacy.

On July 2, 2007, while their dogs romped through the weeds under their Oak, Dan pulled out a vintage ring and asked Barb to marry him.

2015

We want this farm to be our family legacy. We started from 37 empty acres, and poured blood, sweat, and happy tears in to creating a perfect space for families to celebrate their big moments, grow, and come back and visit.

Planning Experience

Your coordination package includes professional planning before, during, and on your wedding day. Click below to explore everything that's included.

HOW WE PREPARE FOR YOUR EVENT

01

Meet

We have an in-person meeting at your venue to go over logistics - where everything will be placed and your vision of how it will look. We also go over your wedding day timeline - the Wedding Party, the flow of each event, vendors, and your décor/wedding items.

02

Timeline and Vendor duties

Our Team will reach out to each vendor to discuss their duties, needs, and provide them with a structured timeline and our support.

Rehearsal

During your 1 hour Rehearsal you'll learn where parents sit, where bridal party sit/stand, and the processional/ recessional (walking in and out). We'll also go over any day-of items and decor you may have.

04

Wedding Day

Your big day is finally here! Time for you to relax and enjoy yourself at your beautiful venue while we ensure a smooth and successful day.
